PRAYERS - WORLD CHURCH & JUSTICE

- To help in our prayers for Ukraine these ideas are from <https://www.24-7prayer.com/resource/lectio-365/>. Please add your own specific requests as you hear and watch the news.
- We ask God to intervene in challenging and difficult circumstances, and for God's kingdom to break out. Pray for the churches in both countries to be voice for peace and have the resources to help those in need.
- We ask God to comfort those who've suddenly found their lives torn apart by grief, fear and trauma, uncertainty and financial insecurity, and those acting to help those in need. The refugees, the wounded, those mourning loss, the soldiers, the emergency services.
- For the Russian people who have been plunged into the reality of war.
- We ask God to give clarity and wisdom to government agencies and peacemakers, blessing and supporting their efforts to bring peace, breakthrough and lasting solutions. Pray that troops from Russia will withdraw; that attacks on cities and towns will cease; for a de-escalation of the crisis. Invite God's peace to reign across Ukraine; for miraculous breakthroughs to bring an end to war.

Please keep up-to-date on other world prayer topics from <https://teafund.org/pray> or better still why not sign up to receive 'One Voice in Prayer'. This is a regular weekly email that Tearfund send out every Friday.

DONATE FOR UKRAINE: You can still donate to the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine TODAY. You can donate cash or we do have a card reader we can use (St John's only this week). You can also donate online through the websites of any charity that is a member of the Disasters Emergency Committee (DEC). Tear Fund, a charity that both our churches support, are part of the DEC and how they can be transported to the refugees that need them.

We have been informed St Andrews in Church Aston is collecting urgently needed items to be distributed via the Red Cross. St Andrews will be open during the day to drop off any items (approx 10am-3pm) These are the items needed: Baby Milk & Baby Clothes (12 months and under), baby blankets, nappies and baby bottles. Calpol, Paracetamol, First Aid Kits, bandages and PPE. Dried foods (such as Pot Noodles, Cuppa Soups, Cereal, biscuits etc), childrens juice cartons. Toiletries: Sanitary wear, shampoo, conditioner, shower gel, toothpaste, toothbrushes, razors, shaving soap, deodorant, and soap bars. New underwear, torches & batteries, paper plates & cups, cleaning products, warm hats & scarves. NO other TEXTILES PLEASE.

RECENT APPEALS: Just to update you on recent fund raising. 'Join us' made nearly £50 for the Ukraine appeal. Also, the three pancake events run by GMS, C&C and the CAP Sunday service raised almost £200 for CAP funds. Thank you to all involved in these events and to all who donated. THANK YOU.

CHURCH WEEKEND AWAY: We are pleased to announce that we have managed to secure 2 of our intended speakers and we will welcome former Curates Rich Cresswell and Andy Ackroyd to our weekend away. We need to confirm numbers to the centre in the next week or so PLEASE LET US KNOW IF YOU INTEND TO JOIN US on 10-12th June to the Pioneer Centre in Cleobury Mortimer? The cost of the weekend is £135 per adult (young people go free for food and board...yay!!) plus an additional small charge for any activities you would like to take part in, but as always we DO NOT want the cost to stop you and we will support any member who may find this difficult. Booking forms available NOW from church or contact Lesley who can email you a copy....

St Michael's

First reading - John 4:19-26

¹⁹ 'Sir,' the woman said, 'I can see that you are a prophet. ²⁰ Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.'

²¹ 'Woman,' Jesus replied, 'believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³ Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshippers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshippers the Father seeks. ²⁴ God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.'

²⁵ The woman said, 'I know that Messiah' (called Christ) 'is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.'

²⁶ Then Jesus declared, 'I, the one speaking to you - I am he.'

Second reading - Luke 18:9-14

⁹ To some who were confident of their own righteousness and looked down on everyone else, Jesus told this parable: ¹⁰ 'Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed: "God, I thank you that I am not like other people - robbers, evildoers, adulterers - or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get."

¹³ 'But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, "God, have mercy on me, a sinner."

¹⁴ 'I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

St John's

First Reading - 1 John 1:5-10

⁵ This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. ⁶ If we claim to have fellowship with him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live out the truth. ⁷ But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

⁸ If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word is not in us.

Second Reading - Mark 1:1-5

¹ The beginning of the good news about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God, ² as it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

'I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way' -

³ 'a voice of one calling in the wilderness, "Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him."

⁴ And so John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵ The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptised by him in the River Jordan.
